New face at Moreton Show

New Moreton Show Secretary Andy Moran has been busy settling in to his new role. As well as taking on board ideas to develop the Show Andy has been busy meeting lots of local faces.

Andy comments "The launch of the new online booking system for Trade Stands has been a great success with many old friends returning and plenty of new exhibitors wanting to take advantage of the opportunities at Moreton Show".

Andy has shows in his blood; his mother was an organiser and judge at Egham Royal Show. He has been a member of several shows, and a steward of horse classes, goats, pigs and Show Secretary of a horticultural show. He has also managed a one day village show in Berkshire for over 10 years.

Andy is also an experienced weekend farmer, over the years rearing beef, sheep and pigs. He has shown his own horses, and has also competed. He is a keen sportsman and has run several clay shoots.

Moreton Show Chairman Nickki Eden comments "Andy brings a fresh pair of eyes to the Show and we are pleased to have him on board".

Andy is relishing the challenge of producing another fantastic Show this year. All details and booking for the Moreton Show are available on the web site www.moretonshow.co.uk.

Moreton Show will be held on Saturday 4th September 2010.
